Test Team Hardware Agreement

Please complete and return this form back to your solution consultant.

ecoprintQ enthusiastically supports your in-house Testing demonstrations with on-site Proofs of Concept. In order to achieve excellence for all your customers' needs, ecoprintQ will supplement your Testing with the necessary equipment to deliver a true experience.

The ecoprintQ hardware comes with its own 'inventory tag' for fast, easy identification and return address attached.

Your 60-day Testing window applies to the loan of this noted equipment. A credit card will be charged the value of this loaner equipment for your agreed 60-day period. Once returned to our Shipping & Hardware Division, ecoprintQ will return the 100 % amount charged to your credit card excluding the shipping and handling costs.

Please fill out the fields below. Upon your signature, this document/agreement stands to honor and hold all said Testing equipment to be your responsibility until or upon its return to ecoprintQ. Loss or lack of returned equipment results in this monetary value noted on this said agreement.
